The East Africa Children's Project (EACP) is committed to working towards a world where all people and communities have their human rights respected, are treated with respect and dignity. Basic rights include freedom of speech, privacy, health, life, liberty and security, as well as an adequate standard of living.

Purpose and Values

The East Africa Children's Project (EACP) key objectives are:

- 1. To advance the education of children and adults in East Africa for the benefit of the public through the provision or the assistance in the provision of education and educational materials and vocational training.*
- 2. The relief of poverty and the promotion and preservation of good health of children and adults in East Africa through the provision or the assistance in the provision of projects designed to improve health and welfare.*

Our values guide all we do:

Making a difference: We are dedicated to making a contribution to equitable and sustainable international development through effective use of resources.

Partnership: We strongly believe that working together with local partners produces the best results drawing upon local knowledge, initiative and participation. The projects we support are managed by individuals who are working to achieve positive change within their communities.

Sustainability: Our projects aim to have long-term sustainable impacts on deprived communities cultivating a sense of ownership, confidence and self-resilience.

Equality: Through our work we actively promote equality and wider social inclusion.

Collaboration and learning: We thrive in a learning environment. We work closely with our partners and others to generate and share knowledge and skills, and to be evidence based.
